Old Town Winchester

More than just 250 years of History & Architecture...

You’ll find museums, quaint specialty shops & restaurants nestled between centuries old buildings on and around Virginia’s original pedestrian mall.
ucked away in the breathtaking Shenandoah Valley lies a community steeped in heritage, from pre-Colonial times to modern-day history makers. Bustling with charm, Winchester-Frederick County is a respite from everyday cares.

Winchester-Frederick County offers you many choices for your visit, whether you have a few hours to enjoy or are planning a week-long vacation. Our vast array of attractions, lodging selections, and diverse restaurants will leave you refreshed and eager to return for more.

Walk the same streets where George Washington, Patsy Cline, and Stonewall Jackson once walked and see powerful monuments to explorer Admiral Richard E. Byrd, General Daniel Morgan and George Washington. View the interesting architecture of buildings that have witnessed some of our nation’s greatest events and leaders. A Civil War Orientation Center is located within the new Winchester-Frederick County Visitor Center. An interactive kiosk and brief film help orient you to Civil War sites within the Shenandoah Valley Battlefields Foundation National Historic District.

Winchester has long been known as the “Apple Capital,” surrounded as it is by vast orchards and constituting one of the largest apple export markets of the nation and the largest producing area in Virginia. Explore our apple heritage by celebrating the blooms in spring and the harvest in the colorful fall.

Discover the nature, countryside, and charm of a city and county just one hour west of Washington, D.C.

Winchester and Frederick County, at the top of the Shenandoah Valley and Virginia, was once Shawnee Indian camping grounds to which Pennsylvania Quakers came to settle in 1732. Today the population of the city is approximately 25,000 and the county is 78,000. The town was named Frederick Town after Frederick, father of George III of England. In 1752 the name was changed to Winchester in honor of the ancient English capital.

In the mid-1700s Frederick County became the military and political training ground for George Washington, who came here at the age of 16 to survey the lands of Thomas, the Sixth Lord Fairfax. Washington built Fort Loudoun during the French and Indian War and, at 26, was elected to his first public office as the county’s representative to the House of Burgesses.

During the Revolutionary War, Daniel Morgan’s Riflemen from Frederick County were among the first who came to Washington’s aid against the British. War prisoners were housed in Winchester and the neighboring countryside.
Winchester was a strategic prize of great importance during the Civil War. Winchester and Frederick County became the scene of six battles during the Civil War, and the city itself changed hands around seventy times during the four-year conflict, it is said thirteen times in one day.

General Thomas “Stonewall” Jackson demonstrated his military leadership in the Valley Campaign. Winchester was familiar to him not only as a military objective, but also as his home during the winter of 1861-62. He was joined here by his wife, Anna, in late 1861. The gothic revival style cottage now serves as a museum to his honor.

In Winchester and Frederick County, visitors will see many relics of the area’s history: the tomb of Lord Fairfax in the yard of Christ Episcopal Church; the home and grave of General Daniel Morgan, hero of the Revolutionary War; George Washington’s headquarters; the headquarters of Stonewall Jackson; the Hollingsworth house, Abram’s Delight, built in 1754 and now completely furnished with relics of the 18th century; houses of the Revolutionary era; the National and Confederate Cemeteries with thousands of heroes’ graves; the remains of an old church used as barracks during the Revolutionary War; the Hopewell Meeting House, established in 1734; Belle Grove Plantation, 1797; and many others.

Winchester-Frederick County experiences cool springs, warm summer nights, and crisp autumn weather of the Shenandoah Valley climate. Bring a sweater, pack your bathing suit, and don’t forget your mittens, for our changing seasons will want you visiting year-round!

The great American explorer and hero, Richard Evelyn Byrd, Jr., was born in Winchester, Virginia, on October 25, 1888. A 1912 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, Byrd became a Naval aviator and pioneered many techniques for navigating aircraft over the seas.

On his first polar expedition to the Arctic, he claimed a vast territory for the United States. He received great acclaim, and was awarded the Medal of Honor for conducting the first flight over the North Pole, in 1926.

A leader of five Antarctic expeditions, he also flew over the South Pole, claiming hundreds of thousands of square miles of territory for the United States. Rear Admiral Byrd died March 11, 1957, a veteran of both World Wars, and was buried with full military honors in the Arlington National Cemetery.

A life-size bronze statue, prominently located at the Winchester – Frederick County Joint Judicial Center, honors Byrd for his contributions to aviation. A Frederick County school also bears this home-town hero’s name.

Patsy Cline

Country Music Legend & Winchester Native, Virginia Patterson Hensley, a.k.a. Patsy Cline, was born in Winchester on September 8, 1932. Her big break came in 1957 when she won an Arthur Godfrey Talent program with her hit Walkin’ After Midnight. Patsy performed at the Grand Ole Opry in 1958 and received national awards in 1961 and 1962.

Patsy’s career was cut tragically short by a plane crash in 1963. Ten years later, she was elected posthumously into the Country Music Hall of Fame, with a reputation as one of the major female vocalists of all time.

A special exhibit dedicated to Patsy Cline is on display in the Winchester-Frederick County Visitors Center through December 2011. Efforts are underway to restore Patsy’s home, located at 608 S. Kent St. in Winchester. For more information, visit www.celebratingpatsycline.org.
General Daniel Morgan was a teamster, mill owner, U.S. Representative from Virginia and a soldier. His Rifle Corps played a major role in the Battle of Saratoga.

His stunning tactical maneuvers and leadership skills at the Battle of Cowpens in South Carolina ended British domination in the South and led to their surrender in Yorktown.

He died in Winchester at his home on Amherst Street in 1802. He is buried in Mount Hebron Cemetery. A life-size statue of Daniel Morgan stands in front of the Old Stone Presbyterian Church on Piccadilly Street.

The Burwell-Morgan Mill, located in the community of Millwood/Clarke County, is the oldest operable merchant mill in the Shenandoah Valley. The City of Winchester paid tribute to Morgan by naming a school after him.
